

STENOGRAPHY THE GOLD STANDARD

You've chosen a Certified Shorthand Reporter (Alberta)

What does that mean for you, your clients, and your transcripts?

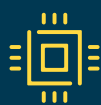

AUTHORIZED & PROFESSIONALLY TRAINED

- recognize when to denote undertakings, objections, off-the-record discussions, and mark exhibits
- dedicated to continuing education and proud to be recognized officers of the court

ETHICALLY RESPONSIBLE

- appointed Commissioners for Oaths
- act in accordance with Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act
- maintain impartiality

TECHNOLOGICALLY ADVANCED

- realtime ready
- same-day turnaround
- verbatim writing enhanced by cutting-edge technology

CLIENT-FOCUSED

- readbacks and keyword searches at your request
- active and present to ensure no [indiscernible] notations

ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES

LEGALLY BOUND

CSR(A)s are members that are governed and recognized by the Alberta Rules of Court and the Alberta Evidence Act. They uphold the bylaws and the code of ethics set by the Alberta Shorthand Reporters Association and the Professional and Occupational Associations Registration Act

FIND A CSR(A)/PSR(A)

Use the Member Search Portal on asraonline.com to search for or verify that your court reporter is a Certified or Participating Shorthand Reporter (Alberta)

Questions?

Contact the ASRA Education and Advocacy Committee at asra@asraonline.com