We provide the support and job variety to allow you to become an experienced, well-rounded reporter. You will have the opportunity to attend a variety of proceedings: discovery, court trials, quasi-judicial hearings, tribunals, etc. Our large client base handles construction, medical, family and a variety of other types of proceedings so you do not become motor vehicle accident weary! Our approach to training while you gain practical experience enables you to advance your writing skills and dictionaries. We are support-focused and love helping new and experienced reporters achieve their goals. We have trained many reporters over the years and our reporters have impeccable reputations. We are not all about work, though. Holidays are important. To ensure some rest in a busy career, we provide our qualifying reporters two tickets to Hawaii with paid accommodations once a year, along with a vehicle to roam the Big Island. We also sponsor social gatherings outside of work so you can enjoy a break while getting to know your colleagues.

If you find yourself no longer comfortable where you are or are looking for better opportunities, please give us a call. Inquiries will be kept confidential.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to lisaciurysek@shaw.ca who will answer any of your questions. We also have experienced reporters and newer NAIT graduates who you can reach out to for references.
