

ARTICLE TEST 03 – WORD USAGE

Provide the correct word in each statement.

1. He made a great attempt to defuse/diffuse the turmoil he had caused.
2. Get a hold/ahold of a representative that will support your position.
3. It will be awhile/a while before the witness completes his testimony.
4. The lawyer alluded/eluded the Judge's request and continued his questioning.
5. Is there any way/anyway you could rephrase the question?
6. Wearing the cast so long had caused a callous/callus to form.
7. His response was to censure/censor the author of the report.
8. The donation by the employee complemented/complimented the gift sent by the entire office.
9. The addition was a confirmation/conformation to the plan.
10. It was immanent/eminant/imminent that the witness was going to break down.
11. It was obvious that counsel was only trying to illicit/elicit the truth from the witness.
12. Mr. Smith, you have mispronounced the witness's name innumerable/enumerable times already today.
13. All the scars pertained to the fascial/facial tissue.
14. Constable, that particular part of the road, due to the accident, was impassable/impassible.
15. Reading the passage so often had eventually resulted in the installation/instillation of its meaning.
16. Mr. Smith, I would appreciate it if you would not introject/interject until I'm finished my ruling.
17. This publication you have produced is liable/libel to cause very negative comments.
18. There has been no response. Please resound/re-sound the warning bell.
19. It is all together/altogether unacceptable for you to ask that question.
20. My interest is now at its peak/pique/peek, so please continue.