

Punctuation- Article Test 1

Insert a hyphen where required in the following sentences:

1. The house has wall to wall carpeting.
2. They invested heavily in tax exempt bonds.
3. The office ordered rive boxes of one inch paper fasteners.
4. One half of the plan needs correction.
5. Both long and short term securities were offered over a 12 week period.
6. He had a two year contract, which was set up on a pay as you go plan.
7. There are 28 participants at the high level conference.
8. The nun was a very quiet spoken witness.
9. We are advertising for a self starter to assist in marketing the company.
10. Governor elect Clinton has a great follow through on his golf swing.
11. The 86 year old patient was well nourished.
12. Joan Stewart was a well known physiotherapist.
13. The up to date report is ready now.
14. The bonds they held were tax exempt.
15. There will be a six or seven week delay in the arrival of the medicine; I hope it's not a life and death matter.
16. You should follow through on that lead for a job.
17. The builder of the 10 storey building is well known.
18. Over a period of six weeks, they isolated 48 poorly constructed houses.
19. It was an interesting example of the culture for the out of town visitor.
20. Read the letter and you'll be up to date.