

Automotive Terminology- Article Test 13

1. The definition of dipstick is:

- A. a device used to measure the quantity of oil in a reservoir
- B. the synthetic rubber dividing the brake chamber
- C. one of the devices used to slow down a vehicle

2. The procedure that is followed to locate the cause of a malfunction in a motor vehicle is commonly referred to as what type of test:

- A. red line
- B. oscillate
- C. diagnostic

3. A scraper ring is the name of:

- A. an oil control ring
- B. a metal circle found on the battery
- C. a device used internally to remove sludge

TRUE OR FALSE

4. A speedometer is an instrument used to determine the forward speed of a vehicle.

5. A gasket is a layer of material placed between two surfaces to provide a tight seal between them.

6. A firewall is a reinforcement plate attached to the web of the frame running along the frame length.

7. A transformer is an electrical device used to increase or decrease voltage.

8. One definition of velocity is rate of motion.

9. A ring job is service work on the piston and cylinder, including the installation of new piston rings.

10. The flywheel is the system in which oil is pumped to the desired points at a controlled rate of speed.