

Grammar- Article Test 4

Make the underlined word plural:

1. There were three James at the conference.
2. Please send two memo to the law firm.
3. I formed the decision on a number of basis.
4. There were two Mary at the party.
5. There are a number of M.D. to testify.

Circle True or False for the following statements:

6. All words with the prefix "over" are solid words? T / F
7. Because an essential clause cannot be omitted, it should be set off by commas. T/ F
8. A semicolon should not be used between two independent clauses. T/ F
9. Place a colon before such expressions as "for example", "namely" and "that is" when they introduce words or phrases anticipated early in the sentence. T/ F
10. Never use dashes in place of commas. T/ F

Make the underlined word possessive:

11. She was disappointed in her employee performance.
12. We're going to the Wilson house.
13. I was surprised by the witness testimony.
14. Read both these witness testimony.
15. Walk to the Jones home.
16. Here is a rack of men shirts.
17. We need both the buyer and seller signature.
18. This is Joan and Bill daughter.
19. I need one month notice.
20. That's two month worth of work.